PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

In tribute to the nation's Bicentennial, the Junior Council of the Cleveland Museum of Art is offering a series of three lectures on American painting by three distinguished scholars of American art.

The series opens on Tuesday, January 20, at 10:30 a.m., with a lecture by Jules David Prown of Yale University on "John Singleton Copley and American Painting, 1750-1800."

The second lecture is scheduled for Wednesday, January 28, at 8:30 p.m., when John Wilmerding of Dartmouth College will discuss "American Painting at the Time of the First Centennial."

The final lecture, entitled "American Impressionism," will be given by Richard Boyle, Director of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, on Tuesday, February 3, at 10:30 a.m.

All lectures will be held in the Museum's Gartner Auditorium.

Tickets for individual lectures are $1.50 for students and $4.00 for all others; they can be purchased at the door before each lecture. A series ticket to all three lectures is also available for $11.00.

For more information, call the Museum of Art at 421-7340.
